

MOVING THROUGH EMERGENCIES

3 - 5 feb 2023

With this workshop Tiago will share his training and discuss how we as dancers can identify, situate and sustain a performative practice.

In the last four years Tiago has been developing a work methodology that includes a physical training based in the fusion of Kundalini Yoga, somatic studies on Fascia and an exercise for energetic body awareness inspired on a ritual from the Txucarramäe people from Brazil.

The workshops will be held between friday-sunday and ends with a public sharing on sunday. Participation is mandatory all three days as this is a workshop series that should be done consecutively.

The workshop is free of charge and includes:
- Accomodation & lunch (friday-sunday).
- Dinner friday-saturday
- Free ticket to the performances Nattskift, Trança and SLICK.
