

WORKSHOP WITH DANCERS OF SASHA WALTZ & GUESTS

16 - 20 okt 2023

The workshop leaders provide insights into Sasha Waltz's unique way of working.

They show the choreographic development steps in their work analogous to the piece "In C" and convey aspects of the company's movement vocabulary to the participants. With »In C«, the dance company Sasha Waltz & Guests in 2021 began a new, experimental and constantly evolving artistic process in the middle of the COVID-19 pandemic. Since the premiere on a live stream from Berlin’s Radialsystem on March 6, 2021, Sasha Waltz’ choreography to the music of the same name by Terry Riley has been passed on to a constantly growing dance community.

Thanks to the new possibilities of flexible artistic production and artistic exchange across national borders (the choreographic material was recorded in video tutorials, which can be made digitally accessible), a wide variety of »In C« projects emerged until today. To be able to make the most of the five days workshop participation includes some self-study of material.
