

MASTER CLASS- Winter Guests

7 feb 2025

Daniel Proietto invites participants to immerse themselves in the essence of Winter Guests' artistry—a unique fusion of raw theatricality, intricate movement and profound storytelling.

Exploring the Essence of Winter Guests- What to Expect:

What to Expect:
· A mindful warm-up to release tension and prepare the body for storytelling through movement.
· Exploration of signature choreography from Winter Guests focusing on emotional precision and nuance.
· Practical exercises to help dancers embody characters and convey meaning through movement.
· A reflective space to explore the interplay of vulnerability and strength in performance.
· Individualized feedback to foster personal growth and artistic expression.

Who is this for? This workshop is designed for professional dancers curious about Winter Guests' style and eager to deepen their connection to movement as a storytelling medium.
By delving into Winter Guests' repertoire, participants will discover how to bridge technique with authentic expression creating deeper connections with their audiences and themselves.

Daniel Proietto, a founding member of the renowned company Winter Guests, has co-created over 30 works alongside artistic director Alan Lucien Øyen.
