PINA BAUSCH REPERTORY LAB

7 - 10 apr 2025

Pina Bausch Repertory Lab is an invitation to explore the world of Pina Bausch's choreography under the professional guidance of Scott Jennings.

Scott's own work stems from his interest in bridging the gap between dance and theatre. He draws inspiration from dance makers and theatre directors, as well as from visual artists and circus performers. Working with games, scenarios and improvisations, his sessions are guided predominantly through tasks, questions and reflections. Scott´s foundational aim is to expand the way we relate, interact, and understand ourselves as human beings.

Alongside Scott's own teachings, participants will also work on and explore selected excerpts from Pina Bausch's work. The focus is on the sharing of knowledge and experimentation, without the pressure of a performance and without being graded. The focus is also on individual experience and the finding one's own approaches to the dance legacy.
